And We're Off... - The North Central Conference is off and running with Minnesota State already having two games under their belt and Central Washington and North Dakota already playing a conference contest. The NCC has been extremely successful so far on the gridiron with all nine teams set for non-conference action on Saturday before the conference season starts in earnest.

The Notebook

Augustana: With a 27-17 victory over Northern State, Augustana improved to 23-5 against non-conference opponents since 1996, with 2 of those losses coming against I-AA opponents...Craig Bosch returned an interception 32 yards for a touchdown against Northern State. It was Bosch's first career interception and first career touchdown...Tommy Ellingworth had 204 all-purpose yards (5 rushing, 91 receiving, 85 punt returns, 23 kickoff returns) against Northern State...The Vikings have 5 sets of brothers on the roster as well as 6 other players who are younger brothers of former Vikings.

Central Washington: Central Washington dropped its inaugural conference game in a new league for the second straight time with its 28-14 loss to North Dakota on Friday. The Wildcats also lost their first-ever Great Northwest Athletic Conference game in 2001, falling to Western Washington 36-14. Central's last win in a conference debut was a 30-16 defeat of Whitworth College (Wash.) in its Columbia Football Association opener in 1985...The loss to the Fighting Sioux snapped an 11-game win streak in conference games, as Central Washington had won all six of its Great Northwest Athletic Conference games in 2005 and the final five league counters in 2004...Johnny Spevak, who has drawn early comparisons to the Wildcats' all-time leading receiver, Brian Potucek (2001-05), and is wearing Potucek's number 84, had a quite impressive first collegiate game with eight receptions for 98 yards and a touchdown. Potucek also made his debut against North Dakota in 2001, making just five catches for 51 yards in a 17-10 Rodeo Bowl loss to UND...Mike Reilly threw for 238 yards in the opener against North Dakota, just two fewer than in his CWU debut against the Fighting Sioux last season. He has now thrown for 200 or more yards in all 11 games in which he has played.

Minnesota Duluth: UMD has now won each of its last seven season openers and is 34-6 in season debuts since 1967...With five catches for 39 yards against Bemidji State, senior wide receiver Greg Aker has now moved into third place on UMD's career pass reception charts. The 2005 All-NCC second team pick now has caught 115 passes for 1,575 yards as a collegian. He trails only the brother tandem of Tim (189 catches from 2000-2003) and Steve (182 from 1999-2002) Battaglia in lifetime receptions by a Bulldog...Ted Schlafke hit Dominique Johnson with a 25-yard scoring strike during the third quarter of Thursday's triumph in Bemidji to extend his consecutive streak of games with at least one touchdown pass to 13...UMD is a whopping 24-4 in its last 28 home outings.

Nebraska-Omaha - The Mavericks have 69 players from Nebraska on the roster. A total of 37 of 44 players on the two-deep roster are Nebraskans, with nine from Omaha and 18 in all from the metro area...Brothers Randy Kush and Troy Kush each caught passes in UNO's 29-19 win over Nebraska-Kearney Saturday. Not unusual, except that Randy is a strong safety and his brother a wide receiver. Troy had five catches for 82 yards and two touchdowns, while Randy had a fourth-quarter interception. For Troy, it brought him up to six career receptions, while Randy now has 10. He was among the national leaders last year with 9 interceptions...The Mavericks got touchdown passes from two different quarterbacks Saturday, just the second time that has happened since 2002...The 39 plays UNK ran were the fewest since South Dakota was held to 38 plays in 2002.

St. Cloud State - SCSU's 71-0 win over Minnesota-Crookston established a new school record for points scored in a game. The old mark of 66 points was against UMC in 2003...Tate Wheeler recorded a school record two punt returns for touchdowns. Wheeler returned back to back punts of 42 and 48 yards. He is the first Husky to return a punt for a TD since Nate Lehman ran back a 95-yard return on Sept. 1, 1999...Matt Jensen had a career high two interceptions in the game....The win marked the second straight season opening shutout for the Huskies, as SCSU shutout Wayne State 35-0 in the 2005 season opener.

Western Washington - Calvin McCarty, a transfer from Reedley College, ran for 139 yards and three touchdowns in the Vikings' 28-23 loss at Humboldt State. He is the first Western player to rush for three touchdowns in a game since Duncan Sherrard accomplished the feat against Western New Mexico on Oct. 5, 2002...The first-game loss at Humboldt State snapped a string of two season-opening wins for Western Washington as well a three-game victory string over the Lumberjacks...Western Washington entertains Washburn this week, beginning a string of four games against opponents ranked among the top 25 in the preseason AFCA/NCAA II Coaches Poll. All four team reached the post-season playoffs in 2005.

National Statistics - NCAA Division II national statistics will be released for the first time this week.
