NCC Tournament Still On Track

NCC Commissioner Roger Thomas as announced that despite bad weather in the region the North Central Conference Basketball Tournaments are still on schedule.

"Teams are making every effort to make it to Vermillion and Grand Forks," said Thomas. "We don't know if we are being successful and some times may change as we get closer to Saturday, but at this time we are proceeding as scheduled."

The quarterfinal round of the tournament was held Wednesday night and set the field for the semifinal and final rounds Saturday and Sunday. The complete schedule is below.

Fans are encouraged to monitor www.northcentralconference.org and their local media for any further updates.

The winner of the NCC Basketball Tournaments will receive the NCC's automatic berth to the NCAA Division II Basketball Championship.
